THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY – JUNE 7, 2020

Thank you to all who have donated by giving online or dropping it off in our mailbox. During this shutdown, it has been difficult to maintain the operations of the parish, but your donations have helped us to continue. THANK YOU!!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION.

St. Augustine describes in his treatise “On the Trinity” that the Father and the Son eternally look at each other with pure Love, and this unadulterated love is the Holy Spirit, existing for all ages. Through reflecting on this mystery we come to understand the importance of community and the sharing of love. As our quarantine continues, our limits of patience and charity are sure to be tested. When it seems difficult to act selflessly, let us use the Trinity as our model of perfect love and let our prayer be that we may grow in our ability to do the same.

ShareLife

Living the Gospel by supporting married couples

Married for three years, Phil and Helen were expecting their first child when Phil revealed a secret: he had a son from a previous relationship. Feeling betrayed by Phil’s dishonesty, Helen learned about affordable couples counselling at Catholic Family Services of Toronto. Over 10 weeks of counselling, they learned to take the risk of being honest rather than using deceit to keep the peace. Phil and Helen found a new sense of confidence as a couple and starting feeling excited about the arrival of their baby.

The ShareLife campaign has been postponed, but the agencies continue to serve those in need. Please consider donating online at sharelife.org. Thank you for giving generously.

THIS YEAR’S PARISH GOAL IS $9,800.

THIS WEEK’S READINGS

1st Reading: Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9.
Psalm: Daniel 3: 52, 53, 54, 55, 56.
2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13.
Gospel: John 3:16-18.

Have you ever lost yourself dancing? I don’t mean the uninhibited detachment of “dance as if no one is watching.” But the kind where the music beats inside you, coursing in rhythm to the blood in your veins. Your worry about your own steps melts away so you can focus on everyone else around you, bending in sync with their moves. The fourth-century Cappadocian Fathers saw the Trinity like this—a dance of Father, Son, and Spirit in perpetual motion, a reciprocal push and pull between partners expressing and sustaining their indwelling union. In this dance we find our truest selves to become one with God. Not all of us will have experienced the “dancer’s high” on a dance floor. But in the liturgy each of us practices the choreography on Trinitarian life that St. Paul gave to the Corinthians: Rejoice and mend, encourage and agree. Live in peace and greet one another with a kiss. Therefore, advance as if the world is watching. Let us dance as if the world depends on it.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA GESTIONE

Sant'Agostino descrive nel suo trattato "Sulla Trinità" che il Padre e il Figlio si guardano eternamente con puro Amore, e questo amore non alterato è lo Spirito Santo, esistente per tutte le età. Riflettendo su questo mistero, arriviamo a comprendere l'importanza della comunità e della condivisione dell'amore. Mentre la nostra quarantena continua, i nostri limiti di pazienza e carità saranno sicuramente messi alla prova. Quando sembra difficile agire altruisticamente, usiamo la Trinità come nostro modello di amore perfetto e lascia che sia la nostra preghiera affinché possiamo crescere nella nostra capacità di fare lo stesso.

RIFLESSIONE SULLE LETTURE DI QUESTA SETTIMANA

Prima Lettura: Èsodo 34:4b-6, 8-9.

Salmo: Daniel 3: 52, 53, 54, 55, 56.

Seconda Lettura: 2 Corinzi 13: 11-13.

Vangelo: Giovanni 3:16-18.

Ti sei mai perso ballando? Non intendo il distacco disinibito della "danza come se nessuno stesse guardando." Ma il tipo in cui la musica batte dentro di te, scorrendo al ritmo del sangue nelle tue vene. La tua preoccupazione per i tuoi passi si scioglie così puoi concentrarti su tutti gli altri intorno a te, piegandoti in sincronia con le loro mosse. I Padri Cappadociani del IV secolo videro la Trinità così: una danza di Padre, Figlio e Spirito in moto perpetuo, una spinta e una spinta reciproche tra i partner che esprimevano e sostenevano la loro unione interiore. In questa danza troviamo il nostro vero io per diventare un tutt'uno con Dio. Non tutti noi avremo sperimentato il "massimo del ballerino" su una pista da ballo. Ma nella liturgia ognuno di noi pratica la coreografia sulla vita trinitaria che San Paolo ha dato ai Corinzi: rallegrati e rammenti, incoraggia e accetta. Vivi in pace e salutatevi con un bacio. Pertanto, avanza come se il mondo stesse guardando. Balliamo come se il mondo dipendesse da questo.

Il Vangelo si vive sostenendo le coppie sposate

Sposati da tre anni, Phil ed Helen erano in attesa del loro primo figlio quando Phil rivelò un segreto: aveva già un figlio, frutto di una precedente relazione. Sentendosi tradita dalla disonestà del marito, Helen si informò sui servizi di consulenza matrimoniale offerti a modici costi dal "Catholic Family Services of Toronto" (Servizi per la Famiglia Cattolica di Toronto). Nel corso di 10 settimane di consulenza impararono come affrontare i rischi dell'onestà invece di far ricorso all'inganno per mantenere la pace. Phil ed Helen hanno così scoperto un nuovo senso di fiducia come coppia iniziando a sentirsi eccitati per il prossimo arrivo del loro bambino.
