WHAT IS MASS?

The Reception of Communion

After praying for the needs of the Church and the world, praying that the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, and acknowledging our dependence of Christ, we are able to receive the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist. When we receive Holy Communion we receive the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, no matter if we receive just the Host, just the chalice, or both. When we receive Holy Communion we are, in a real, physical way, being united with Christ. Our “Amen” is our “yes” that we believe that yes, this is truly Jesus Christ. Having received Jesus should transform us. The reception of Holy Communion is not just about us having received Jesus and having a private relationship with Him. In Holy Communion we are given the strength to go out into the world and share Christ with others. The Eucharist is food for our work in the world.

COVID RESTRICTIONS

The recently announced Covid-19 restrictions limit the number of people in the Church to 100 persons. After the 8:00am daily Mass, the Church will remain open for private prayer, Tuesday & Thursday until 11:00am and Wednesday & Friday until 12:00 noon.

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” —Mark 6:31

When you take a vacation, you may not feel as busy as when you are working on homework deadlines and meeting an overabundance of requirements. But following Jesus is not a seasonal job. When we are not in school, we may have more opportunities for gathering with friends and can find ourselves having to choose between God's way and the world's way. That can be stressful. No doubt, Jesus' disciples could attest to this! After traveling to many villages preaching and healing, they needed a break. So, they came back to be with Jesus. They needed to rest and be close to him so they would have the strength to go on.

This is a good example for us. When we feel conflicted about what to do or challenged by people who think we are silly for standing up for what we believe, we need some quiet time away from the crowds to be with Jesus. He has the strength and refreshment we need to go on as his year-round disciples.

Thank you, Jesus, for always listening, guiding, and refreshing me.

FIRST COMMUNION and CONFIRMATION

RIFLESSIONE SULLE LETTURE

Prima Lettura: Geremia 23:1-6

Salmo: Sal 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

Seconda Lettura: Efesini 2:13-18

Vangelo: Marco 6:30-34

Come mostra la prima lettura, e il Vangelo stesso, oggi al centro della parola che la liturgia ci porta c'è il fatto che Dio ha concretizzato le sue promesse in Gesù di Nazaret: attraverso il suo Salvatore egli veglia sul suo popolo. Il Vangelo descrive la "piccola" gente di Galilea che si affolla al seguito di Gesù come una comunità di uomini sfiniti di cui nessuno si occupa.

Essi hanno sentito che Gesù si preoccupa sinceramente di loro, e che ha il potere di venire loro veramente in aiuto. È ciò che fa, portando l'indispensabile salvezza a tutti quelli che si rivolgono a lui fiduciosi, nella loro disgrazia sia fisica che sociale o spirituale.

La Chiesa non cerca oggi di distrarci con delle belle storie che parlano dei tempi passati. Attira la nostra attenzione sul fatto che Gesù Cristo risuscitato continua ad agire come il Salvatore di Dio. Egli può e vuole aiutarci nella nostra disgrazia. Compatisce le nostre preoccupazioni. Nella nostra miseria possiamo rivolgerci a lui. Egli ci consolerà, ci darà la forza, ci esaudirà. È lui che ci fa trovare le vie per uscire dalla disgrazia, che ci mette accanto delle persone che ci aiutino. E soprattutto, Gesù Cristo conosce l'ultima e la peggiore delle nostre miserie: la nostra ricerca di una salvezza duratura e felice, che sia per noi o per tutti quelli che amiamo, dei quali ci preoccupiamo, e che abitano con noi questo mondo.
