World Day for Consecrated Life—February 2

The purpose of the day is “to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels” as well as “to be a suitable occasion for consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle the fervour which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord” (Saint John Paul II, 1997).

BLESSING OF THROATS

Thursday, February 3rd, Feast of St. Blase. Saint Blase was the bishop of Sebaste in Armenia during the fourth century. Very little is known about his life. According to various accounts, he was a physician before becoming a bishop. His cult spread throughout the entire Church in the Middle Ages because he was reputed to have miraculously cured a little boy who nearly died because of a fishbone in his throat. From the eighth century he has been invoked on behalf of the sick, especially those afflicted with illnesses of the throat.

The Blessing of the throats will be held after mass.

Sharing the Love of Christ

This Sunday we hear St. Paul’s famous discourse on love from his first letter to the Corinthians. God is Love. Therefore, love is at the very core of who we are as a Christian people. In order to be faithful disciples of Christ and authentic stewards, we must fully embody what it means to love. Let us take some time to reflect on why love is so important and then on how we can let love infuse every act of our stewardship.

Condividere l'Amore di Cristo

Questa domenica ascoltiamo il famoso discorso di San Paolo sull'amore dalla sua prima lettera ai Corinzi. Dio è amore. Pertanto, l'amore è al centro di ciò che siamo come popolo cristiano. Per essere fedeli discepoli di Cristo e autentici amministratori, dobbiamo incarnare pienamente ciò che significa amare. Prendiamoci un po' di tempo per riflettere sul perché l'amore è così importante e poi su come possiamo lasciare che l'amore infonda ogni atto della nostra amministrazione.
