Giving Our First Fruits

The image of Zacchaeus, a man short in stature climbing a tree to see Jesus, is probably one that is very familiar to us. However, despite this familiarity, there is a deep message that can often be overlooked. When Zacchaeus has a conversion experience, he vows not only to correct the wrong he has done, but to give back "four times as much." Zacchaeus teaches us that we shouldn't give the bare minimum but seek greater generosity in our gifts, especially of our time and talents.

The USCCB's Pastoral Letter on Stewardship* proclaims that "stewards must consider prayerfully the gifts they have received from God, and they should make a decision (in advance, from the "first fruits" instead of what is left over after other obligations have been met) about what will be given." We should periodically ask ourselves, are we really giving God the best of our time and talents or do other obligations take priority?

Dare I Nostri Primi Frutti

L'immagine di Zaccheo, un uomo di bassa statura che sale su un albero per vedere Gesù, ci è probabilmente molto familiare. Tuttavia, nonostante questa familiarità, c'è un messaggio profondo che spesso può essere trascurato. Quando Zaccheo vive un'esperienza di conversione, giura non solo di correggere il male che ha fatto, ma anche di restituire "quattro volte tanto". Zaccheo ci insegna che non dobbiamo dare il minimo indispensabile, ma cercare una maggiore generosità nei nostri doni, soprattutto nel tempo e nei talenti.
