2nd Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday - April 16th, 2023

As we take part in our Sunday Mass, we are here not just to remember the historical Jesus but to meet the risen Christ in person. Sharing in the Eucharist is a statement of loyalty, both of personal and shared faith. In praying together we also help each other to stay faithful.; it strengthens our Christian community. It was because the members of the early Church in Jerusalem met so regularly in public that the number of people who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily.

Happy Easter to members of the Ge'ez Rite Catholic Church who are celebrating their Easter today!

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Divine Mercy Sunday

In 2000, when Pope John Paul II was canonizing St. Faustina, he declared that the Second Sunday of Easter will be called Divine Mercy Sunday for the entire Church.

This Sunday, let us reflect on Jesus who longs to forgive us and to shower His love and mercy on us. We should never tire of running to Him for healing. St. Therese of Lisieux says “even though I had on my conscience all the sins that can be committed, I would go, my heart broken with sorrow, and throw myself into Jesus' arms, for I know how much He loves the prodigal child who returns to Him.”

As good stewards of Christ we should first accept the mercy of God in our lives and then share it with others through our acts. Some spiritual works of mercy we can begin to cultivate are to “instruct the ignorant” and “counsel the doubtful” by helping with parish catechesis ministries. We can also “forgive offenses” and “pray for the living and the dead” through personal prayer as well as by joining various prayer groups within the parish. Some corporal works of mercy we can adopt is to “feed the hungry” and “clothe the naked” by taking part in parish organizations such as the St. Vincent de Paul society. We can also “visit the sick” and “visit the imprisoned” by seeking ministries that care for the sick and elderly.

Misericordia divina

Nel 2000, quando Papa Giovanni Paolo II stava canonizzando Santa Faustina, dichiarò che la seconda domenica di Pasqua sarebbe stata chiamata Domenica della Divina Misericordia per tutta la Chiesa. In questa domenica, riflettiamo su Gesù che desidera perdonarci e riversare su di noi il suo amore e la sua misericordia. Non dobbiamo mai stancarci di correre da Lui per ottenere la guarigione. Santa Teresa di Lisieux dice: "Anche se avessi sulla coscienza tutti i peccati che si possono commettere, andrei, con il cuore spezzato dal dolore, a gettarmi tra le braccia di Gesù, perché so quanto Egli ama il figlio prodigo che ritorna a Lui".
