Pentecost

Today we celebrate Pentecost Sunday which is called by many as the birthday of the Church. Let us take some time to reflect on the Holy Spirit in our lives as stewards. We should never fail to marvel at the fact that starting with 11 lowly men 2000 years ago, the Catholic Church still continues to this day and the name of Jesus is praised and adored all over the world. This is the power of the Holy Spirit. From a human standpoint, the church should have failed centuries ago if it were not sustained by the Spirit. This should inspire us as stewards to rely on the Holy Spirit to guide all of our actions.

Let us pray this week for a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit into our lives. May the same Spirit that has birthed the Church and guided her through the millennium continue to raise up great stewards to continue to carry out the great commission of Christ in all the world.

Lecture

Prima lettura: Atti 2:1-11
2a lettura: 1 Corinzi 12:3b-7, 12-13
Vangelo: Giovanni 20:19-23

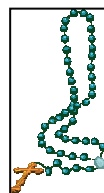

Il giorno di Pentecoste è l'atto di nascita della storia della Chiesa. Secondo le promesse di Gesù, Egli è colui che, una volta disceso, inabita nell'uomo e con i suoi doni infonde le caratteristiche necessarie per rinnovare nell'intimo, risollevare. Lo Spirito infonde fiducia e alimenta la fede, dando quindi motivazioni plausibili di speranza, sostenendo, rincuorando e ravvivando.
