Building a community of love

This Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity which is the "central mystery of Christian faith and life" (CCC 234). While the Trinity is a mystery our mind will never fully grasp we can still glean much spiritual fruit through prayerful reflection.

Firstly, we must remember that God is Love (1 John 4:16). In order for God to be Love itself, it stands to reason that He is "one but not solitary" (CCC 254). This is because love requires a lover and a beloved. It is within the Trinity that an eternal exchange of Love exists. St. Augustine describes in his treatise "On the Trinity" that the Father and the Son eternally look at each other with pure Love, and this unadulterated love is the Holy Spirit, existing for all ages.

Hence, through reflecting on this mystery we come to understand the immense importance of community and the sharing of love. As stewards, we are called to imitate this divine life of the Trinity. We can do this by living with our brothers and sisters and fellow parishioners in a community of love. Love requires sacrifice and is expressed not just in words but in deeds (1 John 3:18). So let us offer up our time and talents for the good of our parish and the Church. If we strive to create this community of love, we can take great consolation in knowing that we are abiding in the Trinity, for St. John says "whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him" (1 John 4:16).

Costruire una comunità d'amore

Questa domenica celebriamo il mistero della Santissima Trinità, che è il "mistero centrale della fede e della vita cristiana" (CCC 234). fede e della vita cristiana" (CCC 234). Sebbene la Trinità sia un mistero che la nostra mente non riuscirà mai ad afferrare completamente possiamo comunque trarre molti frutti spirituali attraverso una riflessione orante.

In primo luogo, dobbiamo ricordare che Dio è Amore (1 Giovanni 4:16). Affinché Dio sia l'Amore stesso, è logico che Egli sia "uno ma non solitario" (CCC 254). Questo perché l'amore richiede un amante e un amato. È all'interno della Trinità che esiste un eterno scambio d'amore. Sant'Agostino Agostino descrive nel suo trattato "Sulla Trinità" che il Padre e il Figlio si guardano eternamente l'un l'altro con amore puro, e questo amore incontaminato è lo Spirito Santo, che esiste per tutti i secoli.
