Gospel Meditation:

Gospel (Luke 7.11-17)

Without any request being made to him, Jesus is filled with compassion for the grieving widow and says to her, 'Do not weep.' He then gives her back her son. This is he who is 'gentle and humble of heart'. Jesus Christ knows intimately all the circumstances of our lives, and he is at work in them for our good. Let us share with him about our own troubles, trusting in his great compassion and love for us.

Further reflection

Jesus looked at the widow with compassion – just as he looks at me now. I allow time to acknowledge who or what I mourn, to let Jesus behold me, and to receive his blessing of hope.

Natural Family Planning

Natural Family Planning is just what it sounds like: a 100% natural way for spouses to plan the size of their family. It is an extremely effective method for achieving, or temporarily avoiding, pregnancy, depending on the couple's situation and intent.

La meditazione del Vangelo

Vangelo (Luca 7,11-17)

Senza che gli venga rivolta alcuna richiesta, Gesù è pieno di compassione per la vedova addolorata e le dice: «Non piangere». Poi le restituisce il figlio. Lui è «mite e umile di cuore». Gesù Cristo conosce intimamente tutte le circostanze della nostra vita e opera in esse per il nostro bene. Condividiamo con Lui i nostri problemi, confidando nella sua grande compassione e nel suo amore per noi.

Ulteriore riflessione

Gesù guardò la vedova con compassione, proprio come guarda me ora. Mi prendo il tempo di riconoscere chi o cosa piango, di lasciare che Gesù mi guardi e di ricevere la sua benedizione di speranza.
