Gospel Meditation:

Gospel (John 2.13-22)

Here are two kinds of anger. One is a righteous anger at encountering injustice that we see being done to people. The other is a vengeful anger that wants to punish those who have hurt us, and this can lead us to fail to love all. Let us pray for discernment in this.

In this passage, notice that Jesus uses a whip of cords to drive out the sellers of animals and the money changers, but he simply speaks to the less well-off sellers of doves and tells them to remove them from there.

The temple was one of the most sacred religious sites and mysteries for Jesus' people. For him to compare his body and himself to the temple and to declare that he was greater than the temple would insult his people and bring him to death. In prayer we watch for what is behind what Jesus says in the events and to the people of his time. Later they would all remember and realise that he foretold his resurrection. He knew he was 'in for the long haul' - he would live forever, raised from death among us all.

PROSSIMO FINE SETTIMANA – Seconda Colletta

Colletta per lo Shepherd's Trust

Nel fine settimana del 15 e 16 novembre si terrà una colletta per lo Shepherd's Trust. La sua missione è quella di garantire che i sacerdoti anziani e disabili ricevano risorse finanziarie sufficienti per condurre una vita dignitosa dopo molti anni di ministero. La vostra generosa donazione aiuterà i nostri sacerdoti a mantenere uno stile di vita modesto, ma attivo e indipendente. Per i sacerdoti malati o infermi, il Trust garantisce loro l'accesso a case di cura e assistenza medica. Vi preghiamo di donare generosamente.

Prendiamoci cura di coloro che si prendono cura di noi.

Meditazione sul Vangelo: Vangelo (Giovanni 2,13-22)

Ecco due tipi di rabbia. Una è una rabbia giusta per l'ingiustizia che vediamo commessa nei confronti delle persone. L'altra è una rabbia vendicativa che vuole punire coloro che ci hanno fatto del male, e questo può portarci a non amare tutti.

Preghiamo per il discernimento in questo. In questo brano, notate che Gesù usa una frusta di corde per scacciare i venditori di animali e i cambiavalute, ma si limita a parlare ai venditori di colombe meno abbienti e dice loro di allontanarli da lì.

Il tempio era uno dei luoghi religiosi e dei misteri più sacri per il popolo di Gesù. Paragonare il suo corpo e se stesso al tempio e dichiarare di essere più grande del tempio avrebbe insultato il suo popolo e lo avrebbe portato alla morte. Nella preghiera, osserviamo cosa c'è dietro ciò che Gesù dice negli eventi e alle persone del suo tempo. In seguito, tutti avrebbero ricordato e compreso che aveva predetto la sua resurrezione. Sapeva che era "in viaggio per il lungo periodo": avrebbe vissuto per sempre, risorto dalla morte tra tutti noi.

Giorno della Memoria

L'11 novembre ricordiamo le vittime della guerra e tutti coloro che si battono per la pace nel mondo.

La vita eterna dona loro, o Signore, e fa' che la tua luce perpetua risplenda su di loro. Che le anime dei fedeli defunti riposino in pace.
