Sunday Gospel

Matthew 5.1-12

Matthew 5:1–12 presents the Beatitudes, a foundational teaching from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which redefines true happiness and blessedness in light of God's kingdom. Rather than aligning with worldly standards of success, power, or wealth, Jesus proclaims that blessedness comes through spiritual humility, sorrow for sin and suffering, meekness, righteousness, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and willingness to endure persecution for justice. These Beatitudes are not a checklist for earning favor, but a portrait of the life shaped by Christ. As the Catechism states, they "depict the countenance of Jesus Christ"—they reveal the character of God's kingdom and the path of discipleship. They challenge the world's values, offering a radical vision of joy rooted not in comfort or achievement, but in faith, humility, and love. Reflecting on them invites us to examine our hearts: Do we seek God's kingdom above all? Are we growing in mercy, purity, and peace? And when faced with hardship, do we rejoice, knowing our reward is eternal?

On February 3rd – at the morning mass, we will celebrate the Feast of St Blaise with the traditional blessing of the throats. All that can attend are welcome.

Year of St Francis of Assisi

Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed a "Special Year of St. Francis" to commemorate the 800th anniversary of the saint's death. During this time of grace, which will extend until January 2027, the faithful are granted the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence. This Franciscan Jubilee Year, considered a gift for the entire Church and an occasion for authentic spiritual renewal, was inaugurated on Jan. 10 with a decree issued by the Apostolic Penitentiary of the Holy See. Until Jan. 10 of next year, the faithful can obtain this grace under the usual conditions — sacramental confession, Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the pope — by making a pilgrimage to any Franciscan conventual church or place of worship dedicated to St. Francis anywhere in the world. Furthermore, the elderly, the sick, and those who, for serious reasons, cannot leave their homes can obtain the plenary indulgence by spiritually joining in the jubilee celebrations and offering their prayers, pains, or sufferings to God.

Vangelo della Domenica

Matteo 5.1-12

Matteo 5:1–12 presenta le Beatitudini, un insegnamento fondamentale tratto dal Discorso della Montagna di Gesù, che ridefinisce la vera felicità e beatitudine alla luce del Regno di Dio. Anziché allinearsi agli standard mondani di successo, potere o ricchezza, Gesù proclama che la beatitudine deriva dall'umiltà spirituale, dal dolore per il peccato e la sofferenza, dalla mitezza, dalla rettitudine, dalla misericordia, dalla purezza di cuore, dalla pacificazione e dalla disponibilità a sopportare la persecuzione per la giustizia. Queste Beatitudini non sono una lista di controllo per ottenere favori, ma un ritratto della vita plasmata da Cristo. Come afferma il Catechismo, esse "descrivono il volto di Gesù Cristo": rivelano il carattere del Regno di Dio e il cammino del discepolato. Sfidano i valori del mondo, offrendo una visione radicale di gioia radicata non nel comfort o nel successo, ma nella fede, nell'umiltà e nell'amore. Riflettere su di esse ci invita a esaminare i nostri cuori: cerchiamo il Regno di Dio prima di tutto? Stiamo crescendo in misericordia, purezza e pace? E quando affrontiamo le difficoltà, ci rallegriamo, sapendo che la nostra ricompensa è eterna?

La Novena alla Madonna di Lourdes è una preghiera cattolica della durata di nove giorni, tradizionalmente recitata dal 3 all'11 febbraio, che culmina nella festa della Madonna di Lourdes (11 febbraio).

La Messa del mattino sarà una messa di guarigione, seguita da una Consacrazione a Maria.
