SUNDAY GOSPEL

Reflection: John 20.19-31

In this Gospel, we meet the disciples locked in fear—yet Jesus enters anyway. No door, no fear, no failure can keep Him out. His first words are not correction, but peace: “Peace be with you.” This reminds us that Jesus comes to us not when we are perfect, but when we are afraid, doubtful, and uncertain.

Thomas, often remembered for his doubt, is actually very human. He desires to see, to touch, to be sure. And Jesus meets him there—not with disappointment, but with invitation. “Do not be unbelieving, but believe.” It shows us that even our doubts can become a doorway to deeper faith when we bring them honestly to Christ.

This passage gently calls us to trust, even when we cannot see. Blessed are those who believe without seeing—not because they are stronger, but because they are open. Jesus continues to enter our lives quietly, offering peace, mercy, and new life.

*Jesus, come into the closed places of my heart.
Bring Your peace where there is fear, and help me to trust You, even when I cannot see.
Amen.*

“The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy.”

— Diary of St. Faustina, 723

Jesus reminds us through St. Faustina that His mercy is not reserved for the perfect, but especially for the broken.

We often think we must “fix ourselves” before coming to Him—but Divine Mercy invites us to come as we are.

His Heart is always open.

Not tired. Not distant. Not judging.

When we feel unworthy, that is precisely when we are closest to needing His mercy the most.

Jesus is not waiting for you to be better—He is waiting for you to trust Him.

DOMENICA DI PASQUA

La domenica di Pasqua è il cuore della nostra fede: il trionfo della vita sulla morte, della luce sulle tenebre e della speranza sulla disperazione. Il sepolcro vuoto ci ricorda che la sofferenza e la morte non hanno l'ultima parola. Cristo è risorto e con Lui ogni cosa è rinnovata. Nella Risurrezione, vediamo che Dio è sempre all'opera, anche quando tutto sembra perduto. Il dolore del Venerdì Santo si trasforma nella gioia del mattino di Pasqua. Questo ci dona speranza nelle nostre vite: la speranza che anche le nostre lotte, le nostre croci e i nostri dolori possano essere redenti. La Pasqua ci invita non solo a gioire, ma a vivere come persone della Risurrezione: con una fede rinnovata, una fiducia più profonda e un cuore colmo di speranza. Siamo chiamati a portare questa luce nel mondo, diventando testimoni dell'amore e della vittoria di Cristo. "Non è qui, è risorto". E poiché Egli vive, anche noi siamo invitati a risorgere con Lui.

Esprimiamo la nostra più sincera gratitudine a tutti i volontari che hanno contribuito a rendere la Settimana Santa significativa e ricca di grazia. Un ringraziamento speciale va a coloro che si sono dedicati alla decorazione floreale, alla lettura, all'accoglienza, al servizio all'altare, al coro e all'insegnamento. La vostra dedizione, il vostro impegno e la vostra generosa offerta di tempo sono un vero dono per la Chiesa.

Dio vi benedica abbondantemente.
