SUNDAY GOSPEL

Reflection: John 20.19-23

The disciples locked themselves behind closed doors, afraid and defeated after the death of Jesus. Yet no door could keep Christ out. The risen Lord entered directly into their fear and darkness and stood among them. His presence changed everything.

Jesus did not wait for the disciples to become strong before sending them on mission. He came to them in their weakness, breathed the Holy Spirit upon them, and entrusted them with the power to forgive sins. Ordinary men, once fearful and uncertain, were transformed into courageous witnesses of the Gospel.

This passage reminds us that Christ still enters the locked places of our hearts — our fears, doubts, wounds, and failures — and fills them with His peace. The Holy Spirit gives us the strength not to remain hidden, but to live boldly as disciples of Christ in the world today.

VANGELO DELLA DOMENICA

Riflessione: Giovanni 28.16-20

I discepoli si chiusero in se stessi, impauriti e sconfitti dopo la morte di Gesù. Eppure nessuna porta poté impedire a Cristo di entrare. Il Signore risorto entrò direttamente nella loro paura e nelle loro tenebre e si fermò in mezzo a loro. La sua presenza cambiò tutto.

Gesù non aspettò che i discepoli diventassero forti prima di mandarli in missione. Venne loro nella loro debolezza, soffiò su di loro lo Spirito Santo e affidò loro il potere di perdonare i peccati. Uomini comuni, un tempo timorosi e incerti, furono trasformati in coraggiosi testimoni del Vangelo. Questo brano ci ricorda che Cristo entra ancora nei luoghi chiusi dei nostri cuori – le nostre paure, i nostri dubbi, le nostre ferite e i nostri fallimenti – e li riempie della sua pace. Lo Spirito Santo ci dà la forza di non rimanere nascosti, ma di vivere con audacia come discepoli di Cristo nel mondo di oggi.
