SUNDAY GOSPEL

Reflection: John 6.51-59

In this passage, Jesus does not offer temporary comfort or worldly satisfaction; He offers Himself completely. The world teaches us to seek fulfillment in success, pleasure, recognition, or control, yet our hearts remain restless and hungry. Jesus reveals that the deepest hunger of the human soul can only be satisfied by communion with Him. When He says, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in them," Christ invites us into an intimate union that transforms us from within. The Eucharist is not merely a ritual we attend, but a mystery that calls us to die to selfishness, pride, resentment, and sin so that His life may live in us.

To receive the Bread of Life means allowing Jesus to nourish the wounded places of our hearts, to strengthen us when faith feels weak, and to teach us how to love with sacrifice and humility. In every Eucharist, heaven touches earth, and Christ reminds us that eternal life begins not only after death, but now — whenever we choose to abide in Him.

St Nichola's of Bari Hall is available for Rent.

New Encyclical Released by

Pope Leo XIV: Magnifica Humanitas

Pope Leo XIV has released his first encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas ("Magnificent Humanity"), reflecting on human dignity, Christian solidarity, and the moral challenges of our modern age — including the growing influence of artificial intelligence and emerging technologies. The Holy Father calls on all of humanity to ensure that technological progress always serves the human person and the common good.

Parishioners are encouraged to read and pray with this important new teaching document in the weeks ahead.

Marygrove Camp Collection – June 14

On the weekend of June 14, our parish will be taking up a special collection in support of Marygrove Camp, a ministry of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. Marygrove provides a joyful summer camp experience for children and youth from families facing financial hardship, giving them the opportunity to grow in friendship, faith, and confidence.

Your generosity helps make it possible for many children to experience the joy of camp and create lasting memories.

Thank you for supporting this important ministry and for sharing Christ's love with those in need.

VANGELO DELLA DOMENICA

Riflessione: Giovanni 6.51-59

In questo brano, Gesù non offre conforto temporaneo o soddisfazione mondana; offre Se stesso completamente. Il mondo ci insegna a cercare appagamento nel successo, nel piacere, nel riconoscimento o nel controllo, eppure i nostri cuori rimangono inquieti e affamati. Gesù rivela che la fame più profonda dell'anima umana può essere saziata solo dalla comunione con Lui.

Quando dice: «Chi mangia la mia carne e beve il mio sangue dimora in me e io in lui», Cristo ci invita a un'unione intima che ci trasforma dall'interno. L'Eucaristia non è semplicemente un rito a cui partecipiamo, ma un mistero che ci chiama a morire all'egoismo, all'orgoglio, al risentimento e al peccato, affinché la Sua vita viva in noi.

Ricevere il Pane della Vita significa permettere a Gesù di nutrire le ferite del nostro cuore, di rafforzarci quando la fede vacilla e di insegnarci ad amare con sacrificio e umiltà. In ogni Eucaristia, il cielo tocca la terra e Cristo ci ricorda che la vita eterna inizia non solo dopo la morte, ma ora, ogni volta che scegliamo di dimorare in Lui.
