SUNDAY GOSPEL
Reflection: Matthew 9.36-10.8

In Matthew 9:36–10:8, Jesus looks upon the crowds with deep compassion because they were “troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd.” His heart is moved not by power or status, but by the suffering and spiritual hunger of the people. Jesus then calls His disciples and sends them out to heal, serve, and proclaim that the Kingdom of Heaven is near.

This Gospel reminds us that every Christian is called to be a reflection of Christ’s compassion in the world. We are not meant to keep faith to ourselves, but to bring hope, kindness, healing, and encouragement to others through simple acts of love and service. God does not always choose the most perfect people — He chooses willing hearts.

“Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.” May we freely share the love, mercy, and blessings we have first received from God.

A heartfelt thank you; to all the volunteers, parishioners, and everyone involved in making our Parish Fun Fair such a wonderful success.

We are pleased to share that we raised $9,225.00 before expenses. This achievement would not have been possible without your generosity, dedication, hard work, and support.

We were especially blessed with beautiful weather for the procession and all the outdoor activities, allowing everyone to enjoy a day filled with faith, fellowship, and fun.

Thank you to everyone who participated, donated, volunteered, and supported this special event in any way. Your efforts helped make the day both successful and fruitful for our parish community.

May God bless each of you abundantly for your kindness and generosity. Fr Gustavo

New Encyclical Released by

Pope Leo XIV: Magnifica Humanitas

Pope Leo XIV has released his first encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas (“Magnificent Humanity”), reflecting on human dignity, Christian solidarity, and the moral challenges of our modern age — including the growing influence of artificial intelligence and emerging technologies. The Holy Father calls on all of humanity to ensure that technological progress always serves the human person and the common good.

Parishioners are encouraged to read and pray with this important new teaching document in the weeks ahead. The full text is available through the Archdiocese of Toronto website at: www.archtoronto.org or through the Vatican website at: www.vatican.va

VANGELO DELLA DOMENICA

Riflessione: Matteo 9,36-10,8

In Matteo 9:36-10:8, Gesù guarda la folla con profonda compassione perché era “angosciata e abbandonata, come pecore senza pastore”. Il suo cuore non è mosso dal potere o dallo status, ma dalla sofferenza e dalla fame spirituale della gente. Gesù chiama quindi i suoi discepoli e li invia a guarire, servire e annunciare che il Regno dei Cieli è vicino.

Questo Vangelo ci ricorda che ogni cristiano è chiamato a essere un riflesso della compassione di Cristo nel mondo. Non siamo chiamati a tenere la fede per noi stessi, ma a portare speranza, gentilezza, guarigione e incoraggiamento agli altri attraverso semplici atti di amore e servizio. Dio non sceglie sempre le persone più perfette, ma sceglie cuori disposti.

“Gratuitamente avete ricevuto, gratuitamente date”. Possiamo condividere liberamente l'amore, la misericordia e le benedizioni che abbiamo ricevuto per primi da Dio.

MESSAGGIO DI
PADRE PIO

“ La preghiera è la migliore arma che abbiamo. È una chiave che apre il cuore di Dio.

Abbi fede, spera, ama.
La fede ti farà toccare le cose di Dio, la speranza ti farà possederle, l'amore ti farà godere tutto questo. ”

Che San Pio da Pietrelcina ci ottenga la grazia di una fede più forte, una speranza più viva e un amore più grande per il Signore e per i nostri fratelli.

PREGHIAMO, SPERIAMO E AMIAMO SEMPRE.

San Pio da Pietrelcina, prega per noi!
